J. D. CLUB WITH MISS WAGNER.

J. D. club girls enjoyed the evening yesterday as the guests of Miss Helen Wagner at her home, 604 Fourth street. The evening passed very quickly with fancy work, music and dancing, and the hostess served a lunch. The club will meet again in two weeks, but the girls were so busy with chatting that they forgot to decide the place of next meeting.

WANT ATTEND ICE CREAM SOCIAL.

In spite of the cool weather there was a large attendance at the second annual ice cream social given by Trinity Boys' club at Trinity parish house last evening. The room was set with about a dozen small tables prettily decorated with fall flowers. Many delicious donations were received for the candy table and there was an abundance of cakes. The members extend their hearty thanks to all who helped make the affair a success.

Richard Himmeyer, who alone sold 120 tickets for the occasion, received a handsome fishing outfit as a first prize. Robert Sullivan and Clifford Myers received second and third prizes respectively.

LOCAL YOUNG PEOPLE ON SCREEN.

Miss Margaret Merriman, the society editor of the Moline Dispatch, who is very popular socially, and has appeared in a number of entertainments in Rock Island, Davenport and Moline, starred recently in "The Man at the Throttle," the sensational railroad drama that was staged in Moline by a film company preparatory to showing in the tri-cities. The cast is made up almost entirely of tri-city society young people.

Miss Merriman took the part of Helen Powers, the daughter of the railroad magnate whose ultimatum to the two rival suitors for his daughter's hand is to the effect that the one winning a speed contest in a railroad race shall be accepted and promoted from his modest position as civil engineer to something more in accordance with the position of a son-in-law to a great railroad president.

An auto accident—staged on the Moline streets—a railroad wreck, having Silvia shops and yard trackage as its setting; a wedding party, taken at the Congregational church, Moline, and many views at "Villa Velle," the handsome home of W. L. Velle on the Black Hawk road, as the home of the railroad president, are shown.

"Villa Velle" gardens, the terrace, and the piazza offered ideal settings for the merry bridal party, and in the pictures with Miss Merriman as the leading lady are a number of Davenport and Moline young people, including Miss Marjorie Velle and her brother, Willard Velle, Jr., Miss Dorothy Vollmer and Miss Marie Sweet of Davenport, Miss Millicent McCrady of Pittsburgh, Pa., who was visiting Miss Vollmer at that time, and several Davenport men, members of a house party of the week end at the Velle residence.

DINNER AND CARDS FOR VISITORS.

Mrs. Walter Oberg entertained at a dinner and card party yesterday afternoon at Fejervary park inn. The hostess had gone to the woods for her table and room decorations and had gotten quantities of black-eyed susans and ferns. Covers were laid for 25 at the dinner table which had as a centerpiece a large wicker basket filled with black-eyed susans and ferns, the handle of the basket tied with yellow ribbon and tulle. The nut baskets were yellow and white affairs and the place cards were in the same colors. The affair was given as a courtesy to a company of visiting ladies, Mrs. Martin Sauer of Sioux City, Iowa, Mrs. Ben Ellis of Dallas, Texas, and Miss Ruth Dodge of Chattanooga, Ga. Following the luncheon the game of 500 was played and the favors went to Mrs. Alma Hill, Mrs. Jay Clarkson and Mrs. J. G. Johnson of this city. Pictures of the company were taken on the terrace and the afternoon was a very delightful one.

In the evening an impromptu party was organized by Mrs. L. R. Mace of this city who took the company to her summer home, "Breezy Point," east of the Watch Tower. Thirty ladies composed the party, making the trip in automobiles and they spent the evening toasting marshmallows before a huge bonfire and in the enjoyment of a wienie roast. Various parties have been given during the visit of the ladies in the tri-cities.

Mrs. P. Ben-dixen and Mrs. H. P. Emme recently entertained for Miss Dodge, Mrs. L. B. Mace and Mrs. Clarkson of this city gave parties for Mrs. Sauer, Mrs. Ellis and Miss Dodge. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dodge of Davenport took a company to Maquokette, Iowa, and later went to Crystal Springs, where they enjoyed a dinner. Mrs. Fred P. Bemis entertained at the Commercial club in Davenport and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Raguet had a company of friends for dinner to honor Mrs. Sauer, Mrs. Ellis and Miss Dodge.

TO HONOR MISS GREKO.

Miss Ann Greko, a bride of September was the guest of honor at a party given last evening by Miss Regina Blake at her home, 1029 Twenty-second street, when 10 girl friends were the guests. The ladies spent the evening with their fancy work and in games and contests in which the prize was won by Mrs. H. C. Rogers. A luncheon was served at the dining room table where the decorations were in lavender and white, the centerpiece being a low mound of lavender cosmos and asters. Miss Greko was presented with a cut glass bowl as a gift from the company. Miss Greko again will be the honoree at a dinner party Friday evening when Mrs. Rogers will entertain.

ENTERTAIN AT PRETTY PARTY.

The Misses Florence Gabbett and Frances Severance gave an afternoon tea yesterday at the Gabbett home on Farnam street, Davenport, when about one hundred of their friends were guests. The parlors, living room and dining room had a profusion of summer flowers, bouquets of cosmos, asters, marigolds, roses, dahlias in bouquets offering a charming and brilliant setting for the many pretty party gowns of the girls.

The dining room serving table was especially attractive, having a large pink basket filled with pink Killarney roses as the centerpiece. The hostesses were assisted in welcoming their guests by Miss Velma Barnes, cousin of Miss Gabbett, the trio being in dainty summer dresses.

The Misses Katherine Sears of Davenport and Lois Hubbard of Rock Island poured and assisted in the different rooms were the Misses Thelma Yarns, Marjorie Beach, Elsie Warner, hold and Marie Husbottel, while two of the young friends of the girls, the Misses Mary Crum of Bettendorf and Katherine Zeuch were at the door.

Among the out of town guests were Miss Virginia Anderson of Lexington, Ky., visiting Miss Zoeteker, and Miss Helen Crane of Elizabeth, N. J., the guest of Miss Marie Kleuze.

INDIAN SCHOOL SCENE OF WEDDING.

The Albuquerque (N. M.) Morning Journal of Friday, Aug. 27, contains the following notice of the marriage of Waldo R. Seidel, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Seidel of 1402 Seventh avenue, this city, and Miss Mary Pritchard of Santa Fe, where the Seidel family formerly resided:

"Santa Fe, Aug. 26.—Coming back after 30 years to the city in which he was born, Waldo R. Seidel of Velarde, Rio Arriba county, yesterday was united in marriage with Miss Mary Pritchard in one of the prettiest wedding ever staged in the capital. It took place under the pergola at the United States Indian school, amidst banks of blossoms, facing the beautiful lagoon. Rev. B. Z. McCullough of the First Presbyterian church officiated, the ring ceremony being used.

"The guests numbered 45, and the bride was attended by Mrs. Ruth of Chamita and Miss Sarah Jeffries. After a three-course wedding breakfast served by Miss Jeffries, the couple left for their new home at Velarde, where the groom is in charge of the mercantile establishment of Samuel Eldott.

"The bride has been a teacher at the United States industrial school. She wore a gown of brocade silk and carried a bouquet of white carnations, sweet peas and a pansy shower. Mr. Seidel was born in Santa Fe 30 years ago, and from here went to Rock Island, Ill., returning recently to take charge of the Velarde store. The trip to Velarde was made in an automobile."

SHOWER FOR MISS CARDALL.

Miss Elizabeth Peterson at her home on Ninth street and Twelfth avenue entertained last evening at a miscellaneous shower to honor Miss Mildred Cardall, whose marriage to Leonard Dickinson is an event of Sept. 8. A company of 20 girl friends was invited for the evening and they spent a most delightful time. The house was trimmed in festoons of hearts in blue and white, which colors were also carried out in garden flowers. There were games to pass the evening, with a delicious luncheon served by the hostess. During the course of the evening Louis, the small brother of the bride, acting as messenger, delivered to the honoree a package containing a beautiful assortment of gifts for her new home.

BANQUET TO HONOR DEPARTMENT OFFICERS.

The Helen Gould auxiliary to the United Spanish War Veterans entertained at a beautifully appointed banquet last evening at the Colonial hotel, in honor of the department officers elected from the local society at the annual meeting held last spring.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are two girls of 15 and 17 and wish to ask your advice.

(1) Do you think it proper for girls our age to kiss friends goodnight?

(2) Do you think it proper to go jitney bus riding nights?

(3) What do you think of a fellow who goes with a girl a year and eight months and then goes with a girl of no account without his steady knowing it?

(4) Is it right for girls of our age to go out nights if we get back by 9:30?

(5) Do you think a girl of 15 too young to keep company with boys?

(6) Do you think a girl of 17 too young to be engaged to a fellow of 20?

(7) Kindly tell us of a way to amuse ourselves at home evenings.

MARY AND MARIE.

(1) No; I consider it cheap.

(2) No.

(3) Unless a boy is engaged to a girl he is free to go with anyone he pleases. The boy would probably not agree with you when you say that the girl is "of no account," and perhaps he knows.

(4) You should not go out together or with boys. If your parents accompany you it is all right.

(5) Yes. But I think it all right for her to play with them.

(6) By all means.

(7) Sew, read, play fitch or any games you like.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have certain spots on my body which grow very large at times. I would like to know of a remedy to get rid of them.

B. K.

Not knowing the nature of the spots I cannot advise you. Consult a physician; it is the only safe thing to do.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: About two years ago I chummed with a girl friend whom I love dearly. We had some small argument and ever since

Mrs. Olivia Reid, president; Mrs. Eugenia I. Franks, secretary, and Mrs. Emma McHenry Sheesley, treasurer. A four-course dinner was served with covers laid for 24. The table decorations were done in green and yellow, asparagus and marigold carrying out the colors. Mrs. Reid was presented with a past president's jewel, as she had served for two and a half years as president of the Helen Gould auxiliary before her election to the department position. Mrs. Frances Simmons made the presentation. Miss Blanche Bromley then presented to Mrs. Reid a cut glass dish, a gift from the members of the auxiliary, and to Mrs. Franks and Mrs. Sheesley she gave beautiful pictures. The recipients responded to the presentation speeches and expressed their thanks and their appreciation of the honor shown them. Toasts were given by Mrs. Corilla Kittleson, Miss Bromley, Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Franks and Mrs. Sheesley.

Following dinner the company enjoyed a time of sociability in one of the parlors of the hotel.

The regular monthly meeting of the auxiliary will be held Thursday evening at Memorial hall.

MRS. SWANSON GIVES FAREWELL PARTY.

Mrs. Swan Swanson at her home, 1513 Forty-second street, entertained the members of the Ladies' circle of Zion Lutheran church last evening at a farewell party, as she leaves soon to make her home in Philadelphia. There was a large attendance of the members and a number of visitors, and they spent the time with their fancy work and visiting, the hostess serving an elaborate lunch. Plans will be formulated at the next meeting of the circle for the raising of the remaining $20 pledged on the church debt.

ED-BURKE.

The Clinton Herald of yesterday tells of the marriage of Miss Anna Burke, formerly of this city, now of Lyons, Ia., and Carl Ed of Moline, as follows:

"Miss Anna Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Burke of 1901 South Sixth street, Lyons, and Carl Ed of Moline, Ill., were united in marriage this morning at 10 o'clock at the parsonage of St. Irenaeus church, by Father Comerford. The couple was attended by the brother and sister of the bride. The bride was attired in a blue silk crepe de chine dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white Killarney roses. The bridesmaids were dressed in white silk. After the ceremony the party returned to the home of the bride where a wedding breakfast was waiting. Following the breakfast the couple left for a wedding trip to Chicago and other points of interest. Mrs. Ed was born and reared in Rock Island and has many friends in the tri-cities. She was formerly employed as a china artist by Miss L. M. Craig at Moline. Mr. Ed is florist at the Overlook home on the C. H. Deere estate at Moline."

PARTY FOR GUEST.

The Misses Irene and Bessie Soona, 206 Fourteenth and a half street, entertained a company of tri-city friends last evening at their home in honor of their house guest, Miss Gertrude Tractenberg of Boston, Mass., who leaves in three weeks for her home. The affair was in the nature of a surprise with cards as the evening diversion. Prizes in the contests went to Miss Dorothy Horblit, first; Miss Ethel Brady of Iowa City, consolation favor, with a pretty prize for the guest of honor. There was dancing and musical numbers were given by Miss Anna Goldman, piano, and Miss then have not spoken to each other. I would like very much to regain this girl's friendship, and yet haven't the nerve to meet her directly. I believe the case is the same with her. Kindly advise me how to go about this.

P. L. G.

If you don't want to meet the girl directly, write to her and tell her how you feel and invite her to come to your house at some definite time. It will take courage to go to her, but it will be worth a struggle with yourself. I admire you for being big enough to take the first step.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a young married man and I wish you would give me a little advice. My wife talks all the time. When I read the paper she is always asking me something or other. I don't drink smoke or rum and I always stay home nights. My wife is always going away and sometimes she does not have my meals ready.

HENPECK.

If your wife continues to talk to you when you ask her not to, find some place away from home to read your papers. If she thinks that she is losing you, she will be more careful to please you. Perhaps a little neglect on your part would cure her of neglecting you.

Consideration.

"Did you tell Rudolph that I was a jackass?"

"Indeed I didn't. Rudolph has a jack that he thinks a lot of and I was afraid of hurting his feelings."—Farm Life.

Mary Dockerman, voice. A luncheon was served before the evening's close. Other parties are being arranged to honor Miss Trautenberg before her return home.

LONE PAIR CLUB ORGANIZED.

There was a short program during the fore part of the evening, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Wilhelmina Johnson, an address by Anton Udden, and vocal duet by Miss Olga Larson and Mabel Leaf.

John Carlstedt and Miss Regina Rosenberg were selected delegates from the society to the district Luther league convention which will be held at Cambridge Saturday and Sunday of this week. A social time was much enjoyed and refreshments were served.
